Community Development Director Sandzimier corrected his earlier statement regarding Public Hearing Item No. E.1. The Item will be heard at the meeting on October 2, 2018.

He voiced his opposition to the appointments of Robert Harris and JoAnn Stephan.

Mayor Pro Tem Baca read the notice out loud.

Council Member Cabrera asked for verification of the proposed appointments involving himself.

City Attorney Koczanowicz read the names of the recommended Boards and Commissions for Council Member Cabrera.

Mayor Pro Tem Baca queried whether the City Clerk is tasked with updating the rosters on the City's website.

City Clerk Jacquez-Nares responded in the affirmative.

Council Member Giba remarked that he was removed from every Sub-Committee by Mayor Pro Tem Baca upon her election to the City Council. He reasoned that, as an elected official of the City, the act of prohibiting him from serving on any Sub-Committee and only allowing participation from three Council Members, effectively leaves out 50% of the resident's input. He emphasized the importance of three of the committees. He stated his availability to serve on a Committee and noted that numerous Committees lack an alternate, which could lead to meeting cancellations if no quorum is met. He urged residents to determine how many meetings were cancelled due to lack of quorum.

Mayor Pro Tem Baca remarked that Council Member Marquez cannot be forced to serve on a Committee and directed him to voice his complaints to Mayor Gutierrez and request to be appointed to a Committee.

Council Member Marquez encouraged residents to meet with him to voice their concerns. He indicated that calls and emails to Mayor Gutierrez have gone unanswered. He praised staff for their guidance and assistance.

Council Member Cabrera invited Council Members Giba and Marquez to meet with him to discuss any issues.

Recommendation: That the City Council:
